MOLINA HIGHLIGHTS COMMUNITY AND COUNTY PARTNERSHIP “AT WORK”

Constituent Responsiveness Cornerstone of Molina Team Governance

LOS ANGELES COUNTY (Jan 28, 2009) — Mindful of the current economic climate and public service challenges ahead, Los Angeles County Supervisor Gloria Molina gathered with community leaders and county department line staff to acknowledge and showcase 2008 projects, programs and services to County residents. And, kicked off 2009 with a message about continuing to work together for a responsive and accountable County government in partnership with the community.

WHAT: Molina Highlights Community-County Partnership 2008 Accomplishments and Kicks-off 2009 with Community Leaders and County Dept Line Staff

“I am proud of how throughout the years, together we have raised the level of County services in my district by working hand in hand with the community to make local government work for everyone, and I am pleased of our many accomplishments, said Molina. “While our nation faces challenging economic times, the County will be faced with providing more with less – but, we look forward to continuing to serve the public and to responding to the many people that will need our help.”
